The Producer writes:-

This is the seventh 'FLYING HIGH', which we have presented every two years since 1968. There is something unique about a Guide and Scout show, which creates an atmosphere you will find nowhere else. Every member of our cast is in the Scouts or Guides, and this is just one of the many activities provided by the worlds' two largest organisations for young people. The cast have given up most of their Saturday evenings since October for rehearsals, and others started working on the show even earlier. We hope that the efforts of everyone, including the dozens who helped and are helping behind the scenes, will combine to give you an entertainment you will long remember with pleasure.
