THE PRODUCER WRITES...

It is with pleasure that I welcome you to Flying High 2014, our Scout and Guide Gang Show at the Derby Theatre. I know you are in for a great evening of entertainment as everyone involved in this production has been working hard over the last few months to bring you this show today. Lynne Dickinson, our former Musical Director decided to retire and 'hang up' her keyboard after our last show. For many years, Lynne taught us all to sing and how to perform on a stage. I'm pleased to say that Lynne is now one of our Life Members. We welcome former gang member Iain Barnett, who has taken over the role of Musical Director for this show and is following in Lynne's footsteps admirably.

Flying High is just one of the many exciting activities available for young people in Scouting and Guiding in the Derby area. The show has been presented every two years since 1968 and we now have the second and third generations of Scouts and Guides performing along with the many others helping in some way behind the scenes. The show has been entered again for the Derby Amateur Theatre Eagle Awards after receiving two nominations for Outstanding Achievement last time. John Miles, our Stage Manager received the award in 2012, our fourth over the years.

I would like to thank our advertisers for their support for this show and thanks also to the many leaders, parents and friends in Scouting and Guiding who have given up hours of voluntary time to help prepare for what you are seeing today. Without them the show would not be possible. So please sit back and enjoy Flying High 2014.
